

On 30 January, 2018, "Youth Center" of Ilia State University, held seminar on "Media and Informational sources for ethnic minorities in Georgia". The seminar was held within the framework of Erasmus + project - Developing Programs for Access of Disadvantaged Group of People and Regions to Higher Education (DARE)

Merab Basilaia, the consultant of the university administration, presented the results provided by Media Development Foundation and Ilia State University researchers.

The university professors and experts from the Ministry of Science and Education participated in the seminar.

The discussion was held about the role of new and traditional media in the process of civil integration, also Influence of information on student civil integration process.

See the information:

<https://iliauni.edu.ge/en/siaxleebi-8/axali-ambebi-36/seminar-on-media-and-informational-sources-for-ethnic-minorities-in-georgia.page>